The AIM difference

"[AIM] is a fantastic dance studio if you want your child to have a positive outlook on their bodies and all that they can do. My child has flourished in dance at [AIM]. Her technique has improved and she absolutely loved when they had a body positivity class [...] We've been looking for a long-term dance studio and [AIM] is absolutely the one for us!"

-Jillian K., AIM parent for 1 year

We're more than just a dance studio. We're a family of excited, energized students and passionate educators. We help our students set goals and teach them the skills to achieve them. We're about love, commitment, support, and healthy challenges. We're about sharing the joy of the art form of dance with all of our students, whether they're dabbling in dance, or are committed to a life on stage. We teach the whole student with mental wellness as a top priority. We're an inclusive, LGBTQ-owned, LGBTQ-affirming dance space where all are welcome. Join us!
